Publisher/Author: Attorney's BriefCase®

Author: Lawgic®

Dawn Gray, Esq., CFLS, AAML

Co-Author: Complex Issues in California Family Law

We deal with the family residence or a business interest in almost every case. Three recent appellate decisions affect your analysis of issues related to those assets, which are often the most valuable ones in the community or separate estate. This exciting seminar will cover the key practical and legal issues from these three cases, plus an in-depth analysis of how framing the factual and legal issues affected the outcome that you will hear nowhere else.

Program qualifies for 3.0 hours of MCLE/Legal Specialization credit

This activity has been approved for 3.0 hours of Family Law specialization credit by the California Board of Legal Specialization. This activity has been approved for Minimum Continuing Legal Specialization Credit by the State Bar of California in the amount of 3.0 hours. Attorney's Briefcase, Inc. certifies that this activity conforms to the standards for approved education activities prescribed by the rules and regulations of the State Bar of California governing minimum continuing legal education.

Who should attend: This program presents a comprehensive discussion of factual and legal issues related to three of the most important Family Law property opinions in the last decade. It features two prominent Family Law experts debating their divergent views of the opinions, each presenting the arguments on one side of the case. It is designed for both attorneys and judicial officers.

Topics to be covered include:

- How the parties presented the facts and the issues in each case;
- How the parties framed their arguments at trial and on appeal;
- How their arguments resulted in the appellate court decision;
- What each decision actually holds;
- What each decision means to your cases; and
- How each decision fits in with or conflicts with existing law.

Seminar Leader: GARRETT C. DAILEY
